ADVERTISEMENTS.

From the COUNCIL CHAMBER.

IT having been repreſented to the Board, that notwithſtanding the increaſe of inhabitants in this colony, there is a great diminution of the fees due by law to his Excellency the Governor on Ordinary licences, owing to ſome of the Ordinary-keepers neglecting to renew their licences yearly, and others refuſing to take out a licence, after having obtained an order of court for that purpoſe, and given bond in court: It is the opinion of this Board, and accordingly ordered, that for the future no county court clerk ſhall take ſuch bond, until the Governor's fee ſhall be firſt paid down, as the law requires: And if any Ordinary-keeper ſhall preſume to keep Ordinary without having firſt obtained his licence, or renewed his former licence, and paid down the fee thereon, the King's attorney in that county is hereby directed to proſecute the perſon, ſo offending, for retailing of liquors, not being properly qualified; and he is deſired to be particularly attentive to prevent frauds of this kind.

N: WALTHOE, Cl. Con.

RESOLVED, THAT it is the opinion of this committee, that the moſt effectual methods ought to be taken to recover the debts due to the Public, as well thoſe from the late Treaſurer, as from the ſeveral Sheriffs, and others who are in arrears.

RESOLVED, That it is the opinion of this committee, that unleſs the adminiſtrators of the late Treaſurer ſhall, within four months, ſell and diſpoſe of their teſtator's eſtate, except his widow's dower in the lands, for a year's credit, in order to diſcharge the debt due from him to the Public, then, after that time, the Treaſurer do take out executions on the judgments againſt the ſaid adminiſtrators, and proceed to ſell the eſtate.

GEO. WYTHE, C. H. B.

IN obedience to the direction of the Houſe of Burgeſſes, and by virtue of an act of the General Aſſembly of this colony, we ſhall proceed to ſell all the eſtate of John Robinſon, Eſq; deceaſed, late Treaſurer of Virginia, on twelve months credit, and now give notice that on Tueſday the 9th of January next will be ſold, on the premiſes, all that exceeding valuable tract of land known by the name of Scotch Town, lying on Newfound River, in Hanover county, about 16 miles above the court-houſe; it is remarkable for producing the fineſt ſweet-ſcented tobacco, which is eagerly ſought after by caſh purchaſers, and therefore at all times commands the higheſt price; the ſoil alſo is exceeding good for wheat, and there are ſeveral ſwamps and parcels of low grounds on it that will ſuit for meadows. There is on it one large commodious dwelling-houſe with 8 rooms on a floor, and a very large paſſage, pleaſantly ſituated, and all convenient out-houſes; alſo a good water griſt mill, and there are three plantations cleared, ſufficient to work between 20 and 30 hands, under good fences, with Negro quarters, tobacco houſes, &c. all in order for cropping. It will be ſurveyed before the day of ſale, and laid off in lots, and will then be ſold either together, or in parcels, as will be agreeable to the purchaſers. At the ſame time and place will be ſold, ſeveral yoke of fine draught oxen, all the ſtocks of cattle, hogs, horſes, and ſheep, now on the ſaid land, with the crop of corn and fodder made there this year; and all the carts, ploughs, and working tools belonging to the plantations; alſo a ſet of ſmith's tools. And there will be then offered for ſale, a very valuable plantation and tract of land called Mankahick, lying on Pamunkey river, in King William county, containing about 600 acres, one half of which is fine low grounds; it lies oppoſite to the lands of Mr. Hardin Burnley, jun. in Hanover county, about 5 miles above Hanover town; it produces fine tobacco, wheat, and corn, and would make a delightful farm, as there is a great quantity of ſwamp and low ground, fit for meadow; but if this land ſhould not be ſold at the time and place abovementioned, it will certainly be ſold, on the premiſes, on the 2d day of February next, when we ſhall ſell all the ſtock of cattle, horſes, hogs, and ſheep, with the working tools, &c. on and belonging to the ſaid plantation, and the crop of corn and fodder made there this year.

On Thurſday the 11th day of January will be ſold at Scotch Town aforeſaid, about 250 choice SLAVES, among whom are ſeveral good carpenters and ſawyers, two exceeding fine blackſmiths that are perfect maſters of their trade, two other blackſmiths that can do good plain work, and one of them is alſo a good cooper; there are alſo among them a ſhoemaker, two or three good cooks, two coachmen, and ſeveral houſe ſervants. The ſale to continue at Scotch Town till all are ſold.

On Monday the 15th of January will be ſold, on the premiſes, all that valuable tract of land in Spotſylvania county, containing about 4700 acres, with all the ſtocks, tools, crop of corn and fodder thereon. This land lies on the ſouth branch of Mattapony river, is rich, and fit for tobacco and wheat; there are two plantations on it, ſufficient to work 18 hands, in good order for cropping; it will be ſurveyed before the day of ſale, and laid off in lots that will ſuit purchaſers.

On Thurſday the 18th of January will be ſold, at the plantation where William Lumpkin lives, juſt below Morocoſick bridge, in King and Queen county, a tract of land lying on Mattapony river, and on both ſides of Morocoſick creek, in King and Queen and Caroline counties, containing about 4000 acres, with all the ſtocks, tools, crops of corn, fodder, &c. thereon. This land is well timbered, and very kind for tobacco, wheat and corn, has a conſiderable quantity of low grounds on the river and creek, and will be laid off in lots, to ſuit purchaſers.

On Wedneſday the 21ſt of February next, will be ſold, on the premiſes, the manor plantation whereon Mrs. Robinſon now lives, lying on Mattapony river, in King and Queen county, and the lands and plantations thereto adjoining, or that are in that neighbourhood, belonging to the eſtate, containing in the whole about 4000 acres, with the ſtocks, tools, crops of corn and fodder thereon. The plantation where Mrs. Robinſon lives is beautifully ſituated, commanding a fine view of the river and marſhes for many miles; there is on it a large, genteel, two ſtory brick houſe, with four rooms and a large paſſage on a floor, and every convenient out-houſe in good order, and a large falling garden incloſed with a good brick wall. Alſo a very good geared water griſt mill, and a fine marſh adjoining, ſufficient to ſupport 500 head of cattle,

On the river, juſt above the laſt mentioned plantation, is another plantation, pleaſantly ſituated, where Turner's warehouſes are, and has on it a good dwelling-houſe, with two rooms on a floor, and ſeveral out-houſes in tenantable repair. The whole lands ſuit for tobacco, corn and wheat, and will be laid off in lots, to ſuit purchaſers. At the ſame time and place will be ſold, all the houſe ſervants, and ſeveral other fine ſlaves, belonging to that eſtate.

On Monday the 30th day of April will be ſold on the premiſes, at Williamſburg, the houſes and lots in the Back ſtreet, where Mrs. Chiſwell now lives, which are conveniently and pleaſantly ſituated, and ſo well known that it is uſeleſs to deſcribe them. At the ſame time and place will be ſold, the houſhold and kitchen furniture, and ſeveral fine SLAVES, chiefly houſe-ſervants; alſo a chariot and horſes, ſome milch cows, &c. Likewiſe a tract of land in James-City county called Lilliput, adjoining Mr. Benjamin Weldon's plantation, containing about 400 acres.

The land belonging to the lead mine company, and Mr. Robinſon's ſhare of the lands and ſlaves belonging to the Diſmal Swamp company, and all other eſtate that belonged to Mr. Robinſon, or that he was intereſted in, not herein before mentioned that comes to our knowledge, will be ſold in Williamſburg at the April General Court. The purchaſers of the eſtate muſt give bond with good ſecurity, for the purchaſe money, payable in twelve months; and as the money ariſing from thoſe ſales is to be paid into the Treaſury, no perſon muſt purchaſe with an expectation of being indulged after the money becomes due, for we are determined to finiſh our adminiſtration, with all poſſible expedition, and reſolved not to wait a day longer with any man than we can help. The lands are ſubject to the dower of Mrs. Robinſon, and ſome of them to the dower of Mrs. Chiſwell, with whom we ſhall endeavour to compound for their reſpective intereſts before the days of ſale; but if we ſhould fail, the purchaſers ſhall then have notice thereof, and of every other incumbrance, that we ſhall know or hear of by that time.

We would now addreſs ourſelves to Mr. Robinſon's debtors, and entreat them to contribute ſomething to the ſupport of the family of their deceaſed friend, who ſo often and chearfully contributed to their relief, when they ſtood in need of his aſſiſtance; but we fear little is to be expected from the generoſity of thoſe, who have hitherto refuſed to do common juſtice, by paying what they owe. We ſhall therefore only requeſt them to pay in their balances before the eſtate is all ſold, by which means ſomething may yet be ſaved for that diſtreſſed family, and to conſider that if they neglect doing it, Mr. Robinſon's innocent infant children will be left without a home, or a ſingle ſlave to make them a ſingle morſel of bread: Surely, if they have any humanity, they will ſhew it on this occaſion, and at leaſt do juſtice to ſave a worthy family from poverty and ruin.

EDMUND PENDLETON,
PETER LYONS.

THE one hundred acre lots of land, in Caroline county, that were drawn by Colonel Bernard Moore in his lottery laſt week, will be ſold at Scotch town, in Hanover county, when Mr. Robinſon's eſtate is ſold there. Twelve months credit will be allowed the purchaſers, giving bond and ſecurity to Mr. Robinſon's adminiſtrators.

MOUNT VERNON, Fairfax county, Dec. 16.

HIS Excellency the Governor, by and with the advice and conſent of his Majeſty's Council, having been pleaſed to grant 200,000 acres of land on the Great Kanhaway, &c. to the officers and ſoldiers who embarked in the ſervice of this colony, agreeable to a proclamation iſſued the 19th of February, 1754 (by the Hon. Robert Dinwiddie, Eſq; then Lieutenant Governor). And having moreover been pleaſed to require, that I ſhould receive the ſeveral and reſpective claims of every perſon who engaged in the ſervice aforeſaid, before the battle of the Meadows, in 1754, I do hereby give this public notice thereof, requeſting that every officer and ſoldier, or their repreſentatives, will exhibit their reſpective claims to a ſhare of theſe lands, properly atteſted to me, before the 10th day of October next enſuing, in order that the whole may be laid before his Lordſhip and Council, and finally adjuſted. And to the intent that no unneceſſary application may be made, it is hereby ſignified, that no perſon who entered into the ſervice of this colony after the ſaid battle of the Meadows (which concluded the campaign of 1754) is intitled to any part of theſe 200,000 acres of land, as they were given to the firſt adventurers, under the proclamation aforeſaid. GEORGE WASHINGTON.

At a meeting of the Viſitors and Governors of William and Mary College, held the 14th Day of December, 1769,

ORDERED, THAT ſuits be immediately commenced againſt all who are indebted to the College for the board of young Gentlemen educated there, and that for the future no one be admitted without firſt advancing to the Burſar half a year's payment upon that account. It is likewiſe ordered, That an advance of half a year's board be continually made ſome time in each of the General Courts, and that all ſcholars be diſmiſſed, whoſe Parents or Guardians ſhall not ſtrictly comply with the above conditions. By order of the Viſitors,

...A. ISBURG, December 28.

...acts paſſed the laſt meeting of the General Aſſem-
...not to be bound, or diſperſed, until the end of
...ſeſſion, to oblige our readers we ſhall publiſh in our Gazette ſuch of the public acts as we think moſt material, and generally neceſſary to be known.

An Act for the better ſupport of the contingent charges of government.

WHEREAS it hath been judged expedient, in compliance with his Majeſty's requiſition, made to this Houſe of Burgeſſes, in this preſent ſeſſion of Aſſembly, to vote the ſum of two thouſand five hundred pounds ſterling towards defraying the expences of running a line between this colony and the Cherokee country, and moreover to direct an application to be made to his Majeſty, to permit copper money to be imported into this colony to the value of two thouſand five hundred pounds ſterling, and paſs for the greater conveniency of change in ſmall payments:

Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor, Council, and Burgeſſes of this preſent General Aſſembly, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the ſame, That as ſoon as his Majeſty's ultimate reſolution ſhall be known, in regard to the boundary to be eſtabliſhed between this colony and the Cherokee Indians, Robert Carter Nicholas, Eſq; Treaſurer of this colony, or the Treaſurer for the time being, appointed by or purſuant to Act of Aſſembly, ſhall, out of the public money in his hands, from time to time, pay to ſuch perſon or perſons as he ſhall be directed by warrant from the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being, ſo much money as ſhall be neceſſary to defray the expences of the negotiation, and running the line aforeſaid, ſo as the whole ſum to be paid on that occaſion, doth not exceed the ſum of two thouſand five hundred pounds ſterling.

And be it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That if his Majeſty ſhall be graciouſly pleaſed to permit copper money to be brought in, and paſs in this colony, the ſaid Treaſurer ſhall, at the public expence, cauſe ſo much of ſuch copper to be purchaſed in Great-Britain, as at the rates, at which it doth paſs there, will amount to two thouſand five hundred pounds ſterling, and to be imported into this colony, and ſhall pay the ſame away at the Britiſh rates to any perſons having legal demands againſt the treaſury, in ſuch proportions as is directed by an Act of Aſſembly, made in the firſt year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled, An Act for the better regulating and aſcertaining the current rates of ſilver coin within this dominion, and for preventing the evil practice of cutting foreign gold into pieces; or the ſaid Treaſurer may exchange ſuch copper at the rates aforeſaid, for other money, with any perſon deſiring ſuch exchange; and ſuch copper money ſhall thereafter be current, and paſs in payment in this colony, according to the directions and limitations in the ſaid laſt mentioned act.

And whereas, beſide the money aforeſaid, there are large ſums of money due from the public to ſeveral perſons in this colony, as appears by their different claims, ſettled and allowed by this preſent General Aſſembly; and ſeveral other conſiderable ſums will ſhortly become due to different perſons for large quantities of tobacco lately damaged and deſtroyed in the public warehouſes, which ſeveral ſums of money, by reaſon of the deficiency of the public fund, cannot be raiſed by the duties already impoſed; and it hath been found by experience that the taxes on proceſs, ordinary licences, and wheel carriages, an additional duty on ſlaves, the laws for impoſing which will expire on the fourteenth day of February next, and a tax on tobacco made and ſhipped, are eaſy to the people, and not ſo burthenſome as a poll-tax:

Be it therefore further enacted, That from and after the ſaid fourteenth day of February next, there ſhall be levied and paid to our Sovereign Lord the King, his heirs and ſucceſſors, for all ſlaves imported, or brought into this colony for ſale, either by land or water, from any part or place whatſoever, by the buyer or purchaſer, after the rate of five per centum on the amount of each reſpective purchaſe, over and above the duty already laid upon ſlaves as aforeſaid, which ſaid additional duty ſhall be paid, collected and accounted for, in ſuch manner, according to ſuch rules, and under the like penalties and forfeitures, as are mentioned, preſcribed, and appointed, for the paying, collecting and accounting for the duty already raiſed and impoſed upon ſlaves imported, by the ſeveral acts of Aſſembly now in force, and made for that purpoſe; and that every article, rule and clauſe, contained in the ſaid acts, concerning the paying, collecting and accounting for the ſaid former duty, ſhall be uſed, exerciſed, and put in practice, for collecting, paying and accounting for the ſaid duty hereby impoſed, in the ſame manner as if the ſame articles, rules, and clauſes, were inſerted in this act. And moreover a duty of twenty ſhillings for every coach, chariot, and other four wheeled carriage (waggons excepted) and ten ſhillings for every chair, and two wheeled chaiſe, ſhall be paid by the owner or propietor thereof, on or before the tenth day of April yearly, and that every ſuch owner or proprietor, at the time he delivers a liſt of his tithables to the juſtice appointed to take the ſame yearly, ſhall deliver a liſt of each, and every ſuch carriage, under the like penalty, and to be recovered in the ſame manner, as is directed by the Act of Aſſembly in the caſe of concealing tithables, which ſaid duty ſhall be collected by the ſheriff from each reſpective perſon within his county who hath inliſted, or ought, under the act now in force to have inliſted, or ſhall hereafter inliſt, ſuch wheel carriages, and in caſe of non-payment ſuch ſheriff may levy the ſame by diſtreſs, in like manner, as he is by law directed to diſtrain for levies and other public debts; and every ſuch ſheriff ſhall, on or before the twenty-fifth day of [illegible]ber, yearly, account with upon oath, and pay to the Treaſurer aforeſaid, the ſeveral ſums by him received upon ſuch liſts, deducting five per centum for his trouble in collecting and paying the ſame: And the [illegible] of each county in this colony ſhall, at the time of ſwearing a Grand Jury for ſuch county, in the month of November yearly, particularly give it in charge to ſuch jury to enquire who have failed to deliver liſts of their wheel carriages as aforeſaid, and upon the preſentment of any Grand Jury for ſuch offence, it ſhall and may be lawful for the court to order a ſummons to iſſue for the offender to appear at the next court, to anſwer ſuch preſentment, and ſhall not admit of any exception or pleading to the form or manner thereof, but ſhall proceed to trial without the formality of a jury, and give judgment therein according to the very right of the cauſe; and if the party ſummoned fails to appear, the court may give judgment for the penalty for ſuch offence, according to law: Alſo a duty of twenty ſhillings for every ordinary licence, to be paid down by the perſon obtaining the ſame to the clerk of the court, where ſuch licence ſhall be granted, and two ſhillings and ſixpence for every original writ or writs in any action or ſuit at common law, and ſubpœna or ſubpœnas in any ſuit in chancery in the General Court, and for every ſummons on any petition for lapſed lands, and for every caveat entered in the Secretary's office, and one ſhilling and threepence for every ſuch writ or ſubpœna in the county or other inferior court, to be paid down by the plaintiff in ſuch ſuit to the clerk of ſuch court before ſuch writ, ſubpœna or ſummons, ſhall be iſſued, or caveat entered, to be taxed in the bill of coſts; and, together with the duties upon ordinary licences, ſhall be accounted for upon oath, and paid by ſuch clerk to the ſaid Treaſurer, in the months of April and October yearly, deducting after the rate of five per centum for his trouble in receiving, accounting for, and paying the ſame: Alſo a further duty of one ſhilling and ſixpence per hogſhead for every hogſhead of tobacco, paſſed and delivered out of the ſeveral warehouſes in this colony, to be ſhipped after the firſt day of January next, to be paid by the owner or proprietor thereof; which ſaid duty the ſeveral inſpectors at the ſaid warehouſes ſhall, and they are hereby impowered to collect and receive of and from the ſaid owners and proprietors before they deliver ſuch tobacco out of their reſpective warehouſes, and ſhall account for on oath, and pay the ſame to the ſaid Treaſurer, on or before the twenty-fifth day of October yearly, deducting five per centum for their trouble in collecting and paying the ſame.

And whereas ſeveral perſons, from a miſconſtruction of the acts now in force, have omitted to give in a liſt of their carriages, with their tithables, in the month of June laſt, and are thereby unwarily ſubjected to the penalties inflicted by the ſaid acts for ſuch neglect:

Be it therefore further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That the ſeveral perſons who have failed to give in ſuch liſts, ſhall, on or before the firſt day of April next, deliver to the clerk of their reſpective counties a true liſt of all wheel carriages, of which they were poſſeſſed on the ſaid tenth day of June, and upon delivery of ſuch liſts, ſuch perſons ſhall be, and they are hereby exempted and diſcharged from all penalties which they may have incurred for not delivering in ſuch liſts at the time aforeſaid. And the ſaid clerks of each county reſpectively ſhall forthwith deliver ſuch liſts to the ſeveral ſheriffs, who are hereby impowered and required to collect and account for the taxes, on the ſaid carriages, in the ſame manner as if the ſaid liſts had been given in at the proper time.

And be it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That if any ſheriff, clerk, or inſpector, ſhall neglect or refuſe to account for and pay the duties, according to the directions of this act, it ſhall and may be lawful for the General Court, or the court of the county where ſuch ſheriff, clerk, or inſpector, ſhall reſpectively reſide, upon a motion to give judgment againſt them and their ſecurities reſpectively, for all the ſaid duties ſo by them ſeverally received, and thereon to award execution; provided that ten days notice be given of ſuch motion.

And be it further enacted, That the ſaid Treaſurer ſhall account with the General Aſſembly for all the monies that ſhall come to his hands by virtue of this act, after deducting two per centum for his ſalary for receiving the ſame. And whereas the duties aforeſaid cannot be collected in proper time, to anſwer the preſent demands upon the public, before mentioned:

Be it therefore further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Treaſurer to iſſue and emit treaſury notes, to anſwer the demands that may be made upon him for the purpoſes aforeſaid, ſo as the whole amount of ſuch notes ſhall not exceed the ſum of ten thouſand pounds; which ſeveral notes ſhall be printed and engraved in ſuch form, and after ſuch method, as the ſaid Treaſurer ſhall judge will be moſt ſafe from counterfeits and forgeries, and ſhall be ſigned by Peyton Randolph and John Blair, jun. Eſquires; and in caſe of the death of either, before all the treaſury notes ſhall be ſigned, it ſhall and may be lawful for the ſaid Treaſurer to appoint ſome other perſon to ſign ſuch notes, in the room of him ſo dying; which ſigning ſhall be as effectual, to all intents and purpoſes, as if it had been done by the perſons herein named; and public notice ſhall be given, in the Virginia Gazette of ſuch alteration, for three weeks after the ſame ſhall take place.

And be it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That James Hubard and Peter Pelham ſhall be, and they are hereby appointed to overlook the preſs, during the printing the ſaid notes, who ſhall uſe the beſt of their care and diligence that the number and amount of ſuch notes be not exceeded, nor any fraudulent practice uſed by the printer, his ſervants, or any other perſon concerned therein; and ſhall number and deliver ſuch notes, when printed, to the perſons appointed to ſign the ſame; and each of them, for his trouble herein, ſhall receive the ſum of ten pounds, to be paid by the Treaſurer aforeſaid; and the perſons ſo appointed to ſign the ſaid notes, ſhall deliver them, when ſigned, to the Treaſurer, taking his receipt for the ſame; and the ſaid Treaſurer ſhall be allowed one per centum upon the amount of the notes by him paid away, as his ſalary for paying the ſame.

And be it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That ſuch notes ſhall be payable by the ſaid Treaſurer, in diſcharge of all legal demands which may be brought againſt the public, and ſhall paſs current in this colony between ſuch perſons as ſhall be willing to receive the ſame, and ſhall be redeemable on the twentieth day of November, in the year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy one, and ſhall then be taken in and diſcharged by the Treaſurer for the time being.

And be it further enacted, That if any perſon or perſons ſhall forge or counterfeit, alter or eraſe, any ſuch Treaſury note, or ſhall tender any ſuch note in payment to any perſon whatſoever, or demand a redemption of any ſuch note at the treaſury, knowing [illegible] or counterfeited, altered or eraſed, ever[illegible] ing, if lawfully convicted, ſhall be adjud[illegible] and ſhall ſuffer as in caſes of felony, without b[illegible] clergy.

And be it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That the money to be raiſed by the duties impoſed by this act, ſhall ſtand, be, and remain, as a ſecurity for the redemption of the ſaid treaſury notes, ſo to be iſſued, and the ſaid Robert Carter Nicholas, Treaſurer, or the Treaſurer for the time being, appointed as aforeſaid, is hereby required to apply all ſuch money as ſhall come to his hands for the ſaid duties, for and towards the redemption of ſuch treaſury notes, and to no other uſe or purpoſe whatſoever.

And be it further enacted, by the authority aforeſaid, That ſo much of this act as relates to impoſing, collecting and accounting for the duties aforeſaid, ſhall continue and be in force till the twenty-fifth day of October, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-one, and no longer.
